FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GEOGRAPHY PUBLIC LECTURES BEGIN FEB. 28 AT S.G.W.U.

Sir George Williams University's Department of Geography is holding a series of three public lectures beginning Wednesday, February 28.

The first lecture will be given by Dr. Bogdan Zaborski, Visiting Professor of Geography at S.G.W.U., on "A Glance at Africa". It will be held at 8:15 p.m. in room 435 of the Hall Building, Maisonneuve Boulevard and Bishop Street.

Dr. Zaborski's talk will be illustrated with slides taken on his recent extensive journey to Africa. His visit of last year covered west, south and east Africa.

On March 12, D. Layng, map division chief of Ottawa's National Archives will speak on "Highlights in the Mapping of Canada from the 16th to the 19th Centuries." Dr. P. Nash, Dean of Graduate Studies at the University of Rhode Island, will speak on "Megalopolis" March 28th.

From the office of: Malcolm Stone,
Information Officer.
